

HIT/EHR Regional Workshop September 24-25, 2009 Presenter Biographies

Carlos Avina has worked at Community Health Clinic Ole since 2004 and is currently the Quality Improvement Coordinator. His roles with CHCO include i2i Super User and EHR Implementation Coordinator. Carlos is a part time student pursuing a Bachelors degree in Political Science with emphasis on public service and healthcare. avina@clinicole.org

Adrienne F. Bowes, RN, CPHQ is a Registered Nurse and Certified Professional in Healthcare Quality-CPHQ, and serves as Quality Improvement Director at RCHC. Her areas of expertise include facilitating and implementing multidisciplinary QI programs, monitoring and tracking best practices to improve health outcomes; as well as teaching workshops for nurses, doctors, medical assistants, and health educators. As her career began in Veterinary medicine, overall she has been in clinical management and clinical care since 1971! abowes@rchc.net

Jason Cunningham, DO is currently Medical Director for West County Health Centers, Inc. (WCHC), and was previously the Medical Director at Sebastopol Community Health Center-RCHC's first EHR implementation site. Dr. Cunningham is a graduate of Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine in Missouri and completed his family medicine residency at Doctor's Medical Center in Modesto, California. Jason has been a volunteer in Mississippi and in rural Kenya. jcunningham@wchealth.org

Cynthia Dickinson, RN, FNP, MSN is the Chief of Clinical Services for Southwest Community Health Center (SCHC), Lombardi Site Director and Continuous Quality Improvement Program Lead. She has worked at SCHC for 10 years; prior role was as Director of the Family Planning Program. Cynthia is a graduate of Sonoma State University 1982 and 1993. cindy@swhealthcenter.org

Naomi Fuchs is the Chief Executive Officer for the Southwest Community Health Center in Santa Rosa, an FOHC providing comprehensive primary care. She has more than 25 years of experience in health care management and is passionate about improving health access in Sonoma County. She earned her degree in Medical Anthropology from Wesleyan University in Connecticut. naomif@swhealthcenter.org

Joan Grebe, MA, OT is an independent consultant who specializes in working with healthcare organizations and an Improvement Advisor for the Institute for Healthcare Improvement (IHI). Her focus is process and clinical improvement. Joan has been the lead consultant for RCHC on Quality Culture Series I and II. She received a Bachelor of Science and a Master of Arts from Tufts University, Boston School of Occupational Therapy and training from IHI. She is a certified Zenger-Miller trainer. jgrebe@astound.net

Lin Hunter began her career as a lay midwife and has dedicated more than 30 years in the field of community healthcare. Ms. Hunter was instrumental in establishing Potter Valley Community Health Center in 1980 and in bringing about the Mendocino Community Health Clinic (MCHC), a multi-site, multi-service FOHC with an annual operating budget $20 million. lhunter@mchcinc.org

Andie Martinez is the Associate Director of Policy at the California Primary Care Association and has been with the organization since January 2008. She is responsible for policy issues affecting access to health care for low income, underinsured, and underserved patients. Additionally, Andie leads policy efforts on health information technology and manages the California Safety Net Coalition. She received a Masters in Public Policy from the University of Minnesota and a Bachelor's in Political Science from the University of Illinois at Chicago. amartinez@cpcsa.org

Stacey McCall is the COO and Assistant Executive Director at Community Health Clinic Ole (CHCO). She has worked in Community Clinics for over twenty years, eleven of them at CHCO. She currently oversees nine clinic departments, including IT, and has been the Project Manager on several large clinic projects including "Redesigning the Patient Visit". Stacey is a graduate of several Leadership Programs including Leadership Napa Valley and Clinic Leadership Institute. smccall@clinicole.org

Carol McHale, MPA, MA is the Quality Improvement Associate at Redwood Community Health Coalition (RCHC). She has ten years of experience in quality programs in the environmental field prior to moving to healthcare in 2006. Carol holds a Master's Degree in Kinesiology from SSU and a second Master's Degree in Public Administration with a Certificate in the Administration of Nonprofit Agencies from Sonoma State University. cmchale@rchc.net

Robert Moore, MD, MPH is a Family Physician, Medical Director of Community Health Clinic Ole, in Napa California, and the Medical Director for Quality of the Redwood Community Health Coalition (RCHC). Dr. Moore graduated from University of California, San Francisco, and completed his family medicine residency at Ventura County Medical Center and has a Masters of Public Health from Columbia University in New York. Dr. Moore provided the vision for the RCHC Quality Culture Series, and helped design and implement the program. Rlm3md@clinicole.org

Danielle Oryn, DO is Associate Medical Director of Health IT at Petaluma Health Center, a FQHC. Since medical school at Nova Southeastern University, Dr. Oryn has focused on community health, completing residency at Christiana Care Health System - Department of Family and Community Medicine. She then went on to complete a Masters in Public Health with emphasis on community health education at West Chester University. Dr Oryn has been with the Petaluma Health Center since 2005. In addition to her family practice, she has led several projects focusing on leveraging technology in medicine. danielleo@phealthcenter.org

Nancy Oswald, PhD is the Executive Director of the Redwood Community Health Coalition (RCHC). She joined RCHC in 2005 with 23 years experience in healthcare, beginning with New York City's public hospital system, President of National IPA Coalition, consultant with California HealthCare Foundation, Community Health Center Network, and University of California School of Public Health and the Pacific Business Group on Health. She received her doctorate in "Community Health Systems Development" from the Union Institute. noswald@rchc.net

Colleen Petersen is the Projects Coordinator for the Quality Improvement Department and the Training Coordinator for EHR. She earned her Bachelor of Science in Business from University of the Pacific and has been a valued staff member with Redwood Community Health Coalition (RCHC) for over two years. Prior to RCHC Colleen worked for Century Theatres as a Film Buyer and Manager of Distributor Relations, negotiating weekly with the film studios. cpetersen@rchc.net

Kathryn Powell, MA, MS has been the CEO of the Petaluma Health Center for six years. With 25 years of community health administrative experience she previously served as CEO for a community health center in Pennsylvania, as a community hospital administrator and healthcare consultant. Ms. Powell holds a Master of Science in Medical Anthropology from Southern Methodist University, with a focus on International Community Health Planning. kathrynp@phealthcenter.org

Christopher Stewart, NP, MSN is a graduate of Chico State and Sonoma State University (SSU) and has served at Southwest Community Health Center since September 1998. Chris is a lecturer and UCSF acute care clinical instructor at SSU and a recognized leader in process redesign, use of clinical tracking software, and EHR readiness efforts. chriss@swhealthcenter.org

Richard Swafford, MBA, MAED, MIS, MC/MFT, MS/AJS, PhD, is Chief Information Officer of the Council of Community Clinics, San Diego, and has over 24 years of in the Information Technology (IT) field and extensive experience utilizing multiple platforms on a variety of projects. In addition to day-to-day IT operations of CCHN and management of the data center and helpdesk operations Dr. Swafford manages the CCHN technical services team that provides services to health centers and other CCHN members. rswafford@ccc-sd.org

Mary Szecsey has served as the Executive Director of West County Health Centers, Inc. since 1995. She has over 25 years of diversified program management and administrative experience in non-profit and healthcare sectors in Northern California and the Asia/Pacific region. Mary is an active member of RCHC and serves on the Board of Directors of California Primary Care Association. She received her Bachelor of Science from University of California Berkeley. mszecsey@wchealth.org

Adrian Williams is the RCHC Director of Information Technology and has over 15 years of hands-on experience with computer systems in a healthcare business environment. His background includes managing a technical team for a Medical Manager reseller (later WebMD) that implemented clinician practice management systems in over 200 sites, implementing all aspects of HIT at 80 facilities in 10 states, implementing a custom EHR for one of the nation's leading oncology companies, and managing national IT operations for 1000+ employee publicly-traded healthcare provider. awilliams@rchc.net